Baby Marriages In India.

A Bengal contemporary seems to have unearthed some curious figures buried deep underneath the tomes of the latest census report. According to this there are 535 widows in Bengal under one year—that is so many infants of from one month to 11 months, had been married in the province and found widowed. It would be interesting to know the respective ages of the husbands of these hapless little creatures. Not a few of the husbands might be found old enough to be their great-grandfathers, with perhaps several wives to each. Were all of them Kul marriages? Under two years we find the number of widows in Bengal to be 674; under three years, 651; under four years, 1,578; under five years, 3,861. Here we have something like a holocaust, a sort of burning alive of these little mites of humanity, who, but for the prevalence of a rigid sex monopoly, would probably live to be true wives and truly happy mothers—the mothers of future heroes and patriots. What possibilities are lost to the race forever under a system which has not one word to say for itself! It is much to be wished that young Bengal joined hands with the old Bengal in making such "unmarriages" impossible. Surely a hundred years of liberal education ought to suffice for this most elementary item of national improvement. Our remarks apply with much the same force to other parts of India. It is idle to talk of the "spiritual" idea of marriage, or marriage being a sacrament, and of baby wives and baby widows growing to be the guardian angels of society, when, as a rule, they are consigned to a life of perpetual penance and self-mortification, while needing the tenderest care, amid the free and easy movements of their male relatives, whom the "spiritual" conception of marriage does not prevent from marrying again and again. Terrible, according to our Shastras, are the effects of a curse pronounced by a woman; much more terrible when the curse remains unuttered. Who can tell how much of India's misery arises from the unuttered sufferings of her daughters?—Voice of India.

DO NOT DOSE THE STOMACH.

Cure Catarrh by Nature's Own Method—Every Breath of Hyomei Brings Relief.

Nearly every one who has catarrh knows how foolish it is to try and cure it by dragging the stomach. Temporary relief may be given, but a cure seldom comes.

Until recently your physician would have said the only way to cure catarrh would be to have a change of climate; but now with Hyomei you can carry a health giving climate in your vest pocket and by breathing it a few minutes, four times a day soon cure yourself.

The complete Hyomei outfit costs but $1.00 and consists of an inhaler that can be carried in the vest pocket, a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyomei. The inhaler lasts a life time, and if one bottle does not cure, an extra bottle of Hyomei can be obtained for 50 cents. It is the most economical of all remedies advertised for the cure of catarrh, and is the only one that follows nature in her method of treating diseases of the respiratory organs.

O. L. Penny has sold a great many Hyomei outfits and the more he sells, the more convinced he is that he is perfectly safe in guaranteeing to refund the money if Hyomei does not cure.

England's Queen.

There are not many people in this world fortunate enough to have their dreams of childhood realized, but England's fair Queen is one who has had her earliest wish fulfilled. One day when she was sitting with her companions she told them her dearest wish was "above all things to be loved," how different from theirs, which were to be clever and renowned, rich and powerful, or to travel and see beautiful things in other lands. It was a worthy wish, and in the celebration of her birthday, Dec. 1, she had ample proof that it had indeed come true. There is no reigning monarch more dearly loved and respected by her friends and subjects. Her whole life has been one to demand that from all who came in contact with or knew anything of her. She is as noble and true a woman as even her mother could have wished her to be.

A Frightened Horse.

Running like mad down the street dumping the occupants, or a 100 other accidents, are every day occurrences. It behoves everybody to have a reliable horse handy and there's none as good as Bucklen's Aralia Salve. Burns, Cuts, Sores, Eczema and Piles disappear quickly under its soothing effect. 25c. by all Druggists.

Lexington is to have a $30,000 auditorium.

A Prisoner in Her Own House.

Mrs. W. H. Layha, of 1001 Agnes Ave., Kansas City, Mo., has for several years been troubled with severe hoarseness and at times a hard cough, which she says, "Would keep me in doors for days. I was prescribed by my physicians with no noticeable results. A friend gave me part of a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with instructions to closely follow the directions and I wish to state that after the first day I could notice a decided change for the better, and at this time after using it for two weeks, have no hesitation in saying I realize that I am entirely cured." This remedy is for sale by W. N. Craig.

Tuberculosis was a rare disease among slaves of the Southern States, yet after little more than a quarter of a century it causes more deaths among the emancipated negroes than all the other infectious diseases. The negro death rate from tuberculosis is more than three times that of the whites from the same disease.

First Little Girl—My mother came to these sprigs because she had hay fever and rheumatism. What did yours come for?

Second Little Girl—Cauth she had four grape-machine dress and six new hats.—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Mr. Wm. S. Crane, of California, Md., suffered for years from rheumatism and lameness. He was finally advised to try Chamberlain's Iain Balm, which he did and it effected a complete cure. This liniment is for sale by W. N. Craig.

Threatened war in the far east caused a sharp decline in cotton on both the New York and New Orleans cotton markets. Wheat rose several points for the same reason on the Chicago Stock Exchange.

T. A. Robleson, a Richmond jeweler, has resigned.

HUSTONVILLE.

C. T. Bohon, our "mule king," shipped another car of fine cotton mules to Atlanta Friday.

Frank North sold his farm of 85 acres near John Murphy's to Stigall Bros. at $55,000 in 30 days.

Janie Farris, our justly celebrated phenomenal spiritualist, is losing control of her eyes periodically and they become so crossed that every ray of light is excluded from her vision for hours at a time.

The post office at Kidds Store was robbed by James Turpin on last Saturday night. The only item missing is the handsome young post mistress—Miss Grubbs, the daughter of Jas. Grubbs. A message from Bedford, Ind., announces their marriage.

The consensus of opinion of the West and Lincoln favor the building of a capitol that would be an honor, as well as an ornament, to our old Kentucky home and have engraved upon marble beside the main entrance the father of the bill and its supporters that will locate same in Lexington, but never in Frankfort.

On the night of Dec. 12th the top half of a hay stack blew off on the O'Bannon and Ashley farm on Hanging Fork and completely covered a sheep that was missed the next day. The rush of other work deferred the rebuilding of the stack until Jan. 2, when the lost sheep was found still living after 21 days beneath a 1,000 pounds of hay.

Late letters from Will and Perry Neal, of the gold mining district of Utah, give a graphic account of an earthquake of remarkable proportions in their locality that opened immense crevices in the earth through their mining region and reached as far east as New York. They report flattering prospects and we wish them abundant success.

A good crowd attended the sale of the late Dr. Brown's effects here on Saturday, although the frigid elements were furious, bidding was quite spirited and good prices were realized. Belgian horses sold from $50 to $1 per pair. His residence including the barn was sold to Mrs. Mary Brown for $500, the residence and lot beside it that was occupied by Mrs. Brown was sold to Geo. Dinwiddie for $800. The three vacant lots beside Dr. Brown's residence sold to Joe Hayday for $700.

Mrs. Josiah Bishop left Monday for Ponca City, Oklahoma, in reply to a message announcing the illness of her son, Rolland. Mrs. Chas. Wheeler and Mrs. Burdett Powell are visiting Dr. Carl Wheeler, of Lexington. Mr. John B. Hause, of Augusta, Kan., is visiting the scenes of his boyhood days that were spent in Casey county and the West End of Lincoln. His father, Ben Hause, was the author of "Celeste," a noted volume in this part of Kentucky in the 60's and later that vividly portrayed many amusing incidents in real life in Casey and adjoining counties. He kept hotel here in the old Weatherford House about the beginning of the Civil war. Mr. John B. is a prosperous dealer in real estate in Kansas. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Van-Ardall (Skinny and Dot) are at their cottage home, "Mt. Viseleur," on Mid-Isleburg boulevard.

Prominent among those who attended that memorable banquet of the Red Men at the Weatherford House on the night of Jan. 1st, we noticed Rev. G. W. Mills and wife, Wm. S. Huffman and wife, Frank North and wife, Burdett Powell and wife, Dr. Barker and wife, D. M. Lipp and wife, D. H. Skinner and wife, Chas. Wheeler and wife, J. B. Adams and wife, of Danville, Jas. Woods, of Stanford, Sam McKinney and Miss Lena Yowell, O. S. Williams and Miss Edna Cannitz, Jas. Reid and sister, Miss Anna, Jones Baughman and sister, Miss Edna, Geo. A. Dinwiddie and sister, Miss Mattle, Miss Ellen Powers, D. C. Allen, Geo. D. Weatherford, Geo. Gillock and others. Wheeler, W. S. Huffman, J. Beecher Adams, Geo. Dinwiddie, Bro. Mills and others in a happy mood.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera & Diarrhoea Remedy.

The uniform success of this remedy has made it the most popular preparation in use for bowel complaints. It is everywhere recognized as the one remedy that can always be depended upon and that is pleasant to take. For sale by W. N. Craig.

Threatened war in the far east caused a sharp decline in cotton on both the New York and New Orleans cotton markets. Wheat rose several points for the same reason on the Chicago Stock Exchange.

First Little Girl—My mother came to these sprigs because she had hay fever and rheumatism. What did yours come for?

Second Little Girl—Cauth she had four grape-machine dress and six new hats.—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Mr. Wm. S. Crane, of California, Md., suffered for years from rheumatism and lameness. He was finally advised to try Chamberlain's Iain Balm, which he did and it effected a complete cure. This liniment is for sale by W. N. Craig.

LANCASTER.

The C. W. B. M. auxiliary observed Sunday in its annual service. A collection was taken up.

The city and county supervisors are in session. The property in the city will reach $900,000 and that of the county will approximate $5,000,000.

Miss Norma Elmore entertained in a charming manner Saturday evening. The Misses Gill entertained in honor of their guest, Miss Peebles, of Abingdon, during the holidays.

Mrs. Dove Harris sold her place on Richmond Street to Wm. Gregory.

Jamee Hill sold to Joe Arnold his house and lot on Danville Street. Mr. Hill then bought the cottage occupied by Mrs. Eliza Arnold.

The "Week of Prayer" is being observed by the pastor of the Lancaster churches and the people in general. A packed house listened to Rev. Chumley Sunday evening at the Methodist church. The daily services are also well attended.

The following officials were selected by the city council at Lancaster to serve during the year: Chief of Police, S. D. Rothwell; attorney, G. B. Swinebroad; clerk, William B. Mason; treasurer, R. T. Embrey. Councilman Robinson resigned and W. A. Beasley was chosen in his stead.

It is with regret that we announce the death of Holton Frank, of Lexington, son of Eld. J. C. Frank, once pastor of the Lancaster Christian church.

He was a bright young minister and gave promise of a useful life. His many friends will be pained to learn of his untimely taking off.

Lancaster society enjoyed the Leap Year Party given by the B. M. Club Friday evening. Closed carriages were in demand and the young ladies made gallant escorts for the young men. Delightful refreshments were served, the entertainment was most excellent and the whole evening a season of delight.

R. E. Hughee has returned to his home in Louisville. Misses Clyde Mc Ginnis, Mamie Lillard, Mabel Taylor and Cyrene Dunn, of Dauphin, Beulah Turley and —— Kayburn, of Richmond, Christine Bradley, of Louisville, Lizzie Williams and Pearl Hackney, of London, Annie Bronough, of Crab Orchard, attended the Xmas hop.

The city council, to express its satisfaction at the success of the water works system, gave a banquet to the citizens of Lancaster who have stood by it in the trying ordeal of establishing this system. The menu was full and complete, the toasts even fuller and the affair in point of elegance and good cheer, the most enjoyable of the season.

The W. C. T. U. has been trying to devise ways and means for a circulating library and on Monday evening the initial step was taken by inviting the public to a "Book Reception" given at the Rest Room. The success of this was most gratifying in the number and quality of books received. The members thank the people for their patronage and hope to soon have a full library.

CLIMATIC CURES.—The influence of climatic conditions in the cure of consumption is very much overdrawn. The poor patient and the rich patient, too, can do much better at home by proper attention to food digestion, and a regular use of German Syrup. Free expectoration in the morning is made certain by German Syrup, so is a good night's rest and the absence of that weakening cough and debilitating night sweat. Restless nights and the exhaustion due to coughing, the greatest danger and dread of the consumptive, can be prevented or stopped by taking German Syrup liberally and regularly. Should you be able to go to a warmer climate, you will find that of the thousands of consumptives there, the few who are benefited and regain strength are those who use German Syrup. Trial bottles 25c; regular size 75c. At all drug gists:

"I dearly love that good old song, 'Home, Sweet Home,'" remarked the young man who was afflicted with the lingering habit.

THE democratic caucus at Frankfort nominated the Hon. E. H. Brown, of Nelson county, for Speaker. Only one ballot was taken, resulting: Brown, 43; Newcomb, 18; Barton, 15. Mr. Brown's nomination was made unanimous and one of the most spirited contests of recent years over the speakership closed with the best of feeling. The Senate caucus nominated Senator J. Embry Allen, of Fayette, for president pro tem. James E. Stone, of Breckinridge county, was elected Chief Clerk, Marion Pogue, of Crittenden county, Assistant Clerk, Miss Amy Lyons, of Jessamine county, Enrolling Clerk, A. C. Dunn, of this county, Doorkeeper, Capt. C. W. Longmire, of Lexington, Sergeant-at-Arms, C. Parrish, of Lexington, Janitor, James B. Knox, of Hancock county, and Guy Vinson, of Muhlenburg county, cloak room keepers, and Raymond Olive, of Lyon county; Ernest Renaker, of Harrison county; Herbert Crader, of Louisville; and Rebel Martin, of Knott county, were elected pages after long and exciting contests. Manley Huey, son of Rev. O. M. Huey, of this city, made a good race for cloak room keeper, but met defeat. The easiest race was that of Mr. A. C. Dunn, who was elected on the first ballot, getting 48 votes to his four opponents' 24. The Courier Journal says it was a runaway race for Mr. Dunn and that Hon. J. M. Alversen, Representative from this county, is entitled to the honor of leading Mr. Dunn. Hon. M. F. North made a creditable race for Assistant Clerk and his many friends regret that he did not win.

WOMEN do not seem to want to vote as bad as some few of their sex think they do. For instance, in Springfield, Mass., where women are entitled to vote in school elections, only 263 of the 10,000 women in the town qualified themselves to vote by registering, and only 51 of these took the trouble to vote. And yet women are supposed to be especially interested in school policy and management, because the care of young life falls more directly upon them. Very few women, however, desire to vote in any election. The rest are satisfied with boozing the men who vote.

THE papers are talking mighty nicely about Judge M. C. Saufley, whose friends are trying to get him to stand for the democratic nomination for Appellate Judge. The judge's admirers, and they are legion, greatly appreciate these evidences of good feeling for him and they will leave nothing undone in their efforts to induce him to make the race.

THE Somerset Journal offers the following as a solution to a knotty problem: "An easy solution of the holocaust problem is to drop the asbestos curtains and let them remain dropped till the present aggregation of fake above disband and the army of bums now in the business go back to the pawn-bankees and mines where they belong."

IN an interview Col. Dan L. Moore says he made $15,000 out of a cotton deal recently. The very wet and very dry things seem to be "good things" for the amiable colonel, but he'll have to get a bigger pile than he last clearing if he hopes to defeat Hon. Harvey Helm, of this place, for the democratic nomination for Congress.

JUDGE M. C. SAUFLEY is now an "ex," but good timber like him will not be permitted to remain idle long. He is as sure to succeed Judge Burnam as a cent is for a ginger cake, if his friends can only get him to run for the office.

POLITICAL.

Recommendations have been made to Congress for a continuous dam across the Ohio river at Louisville.

State Central Committeeman Ab Ross has been made steward of the Feeble-Minded Institute at Frankfort.

A bill probably will be introduced in the Kentucky Legislature to do away with the secret ballot and substitute the viva voce.

Events at Frankfort make it more evident than ever that Gov. Beckham will be a candidate for United States Senator, says the Louisville Times.

Gov. Beckham will name Judge Matt O'Doherty, Will H. Newman and Chas. P. Dehler as commissioners of the Central Asylum for the Insane at Lexington.

The joint Democratic caucus at Frankfort nominated George V. Green for Prison Commissioner and Miss Pauline Helm Hardin for State Librarian.

The first official act of Appellate Clerk Morgan Chinn was to swear in Hon. W. C. Bell and Allie W. Young as circuit judges in their respective districts.

Chief Justice Fuller, of the Supreme Court, decided the citizens of Puerto Rico are not aliens and that they are entitled to enter this country without obstruction.

At a meeting of the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations Senator Morgan attacked the right of the Republic of Panama to surrender title to the canal property.

Sec'y Hitchcock has recommended that the office of Railroad Commissioner be abolished, and it is probable that no successor to General Longstreet will be appointed.

The Senate committee on military affairs decided to report favorably the nomination of Brig. Gen. Leonard Wood to be Major General. The vote stood seven to two.

The bill making original packages of liquor and beer subject to the laws of the State into which they are shipped is expected to be favorably reported by the House Judiciary Committee.

Senator J. C. S. Blackburn announces that he will be a candidate for re-election and will make the fight of his life. He comes out for G. C. man for the democratic nomination for President.

Enoch S. Osborn has been appointed postmaster at George, Clinton county; Mrs. Rosaline Wooldridge at Jabez, Russell county, and Mrs. P. A. Webb at Webb's Cross Roads, Russell county.

Charles S. Hamlin, of Boston, First assistant secretary of the treasury under Cleveland, writes that he is going to devote a great deal of his time toward procuring the democratic nomination for President for Richard Olney.

State Treasurer Bosworth has named as State depositaries for the next four years the Southern National Bank, of Louisville; Farmers' Bank, of Frankfort; Graves County Banking and Trust Company, of Mayfield; National Bank of Lebanon, and Phoenix National Bank, of Lexington.

Superintendent of City Schools M. A. Cassidy has received no news that he will be appointed a member of the State board of examiners. Prof. M. L. Chouwing, of Lawrenceburg, will be the other member, Superintendent of Public Instruction J. H. Fuqua completing the board.—Lexington Democrat.

The new Speaker is a gentleman of ripe legislative experiences, well proven ability and known personal integrity. As presiding officer of the House, men and measures are assured a fair hearing and the business of the session will not suffer because of the responsibility intrusted to his hands.—Louisville Times.

In a long speech in the Senate Mr. Lodge endorsed President Roosevelt's action as to Panama, declaring that in no way had the executive overstepped his legal rights. A resolution introduced by Senator Gorman calls on the president for specified information as to the United States' connection with Colombian affairs.

John S. Rice, of the Third district, has announced that he is a candidate for re-election to Congress. He says he has heard that he may have opposition for the nomination. "If I do," he said, "I shall insist on a primary. I want the people of my district to express their preference, and if that privilege is given them I have no fears as to the result."

Principal Suggestions in Gov. Beckham's Message.

That the charitable institutions of the State are in need of smaller appropriations than for some years past.

That while there is in the State Treasury more money than has ever before been in the treasury, yet prudence and economy are advised.

That the schools of reform be placed under a different system of operation, the Governor's idea probably being that they should be placed under the management of the State Board of Prison Commissioners or some such body.

That the crowded condition of the insane asylums makes necessary an appropriation for an addition to one of the present asylums. This would be less expensive than the building of another asylum.

That the democratic platform demands for uniform school books and for a maximum price to be fixed by statute should be put into execution in the form of a uniform school book law. The Governor thinks that such a measure should and will pass at this session and that it is the most popular measure now before the people.

He suggests that the county pay half of the $75 per capita now paid by the State for pauper idiots, believing that this would prevent carelessness on the part of county officials and would save from $150,000 to $200,000 a year.

He urges that a sufficient amount of money should be appropriated for the erection of capitol buildings commensurate with the dignity of the State. He regards the location of the capitol as settled and believes that this is the proper time for the passage of a Capital Appropriation Bill.

He urges a proper appropriation to carry out the plan of the Kentucky Exhibit Association for the proper representation of Kentucky at the World's Fair in St. Louis.

The Governor's suggestions are favorably commended upon by the membership of the Senate and House and it is believed that most of them will be crystallized into laws.

HERE AND THERE.

The Allegheny and Ohio rivers are gorged with ice about Pittsburgh and Cincinnati, and much anxiety is felt.

Sgt. Julius Frederick, one of the five survivors of the famous Greely Arctic expedition, is dead at Indianapolis.

Col. Thomas C. Campbell, the well known criminal lawyer who prosecuted Powers, Howard and Yousey in the Goebel case, is dead in New York.

FIGHT WILL BE BITTER.

Those who will earnest in closing their ears against the continual recommendation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, will have a long and bitter fight with their iron men. If not ended earlier by fatal termination. Read what T. R. Beall of Bell, Miss., had to say: "Last fall my wife had every symptom of consumption. She took Dr. King's New Discovery after everything else had failed. Improvement came at once and four bottles entirely cured her." Guarded by all druggists. Price 50c, and $1. Trial bottle free.

CHURCH MATTERS.

A new church building, large and commodious, and to cost about $100,000, is what the Rev. J. Kinsey Smith asked of his congregation in his Sunday morning sermon. He said that the presented idea of the Fourth Avenue Presbyterian church, Louisville, is inadequate and antiquated.

MONDAY will be county court. Drop in and give us some news.

MILLIONAIRE'S POOR STOMACH. The worn out stomach of the over fed millionaire is often paraded in the public prints as a horrible example of the evils attendant on the possession of great wealth. But millionaires are not the only ones who are afflicted with bad stomachs. The proportion is far greater among the toilers. Dyspepsia and indigestion are rampant among these people, and they suffer far worse tortures than the millionaires unless they avail themselves of a standard medicine like Green's Angost Flower, which has been a favorite household remedy for all stomach troubles for over 35 years. Angost Flower rouses the torpid liver, thus creating appetite and insure a perfect digestion. It tones and vitalizes the entire system and makes life worth living, no matter what your station. Trial bottles 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

of consumption and was buried at the Gooch graveyard Sunday. She was about 22 years of age and a splendid young woman. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved family.

Our former splendid ticket agent, J. Bowe, left Monday for the South with a view to locating. His brother-in-law, Mr. C. G. Baker, accompanied him as far as Harriman, Tenn., where the latter is thinking of locating. He will probably go into the drug business.

Chicken thieves are operating in this locality. Several have had visits from the marauders, the heaviest loss being Rev. C. Ragin, who is watching for them. We warrant the thief a warm reception when he is caught.

Among the good citizens we had to give up by their moving away were Joseph Lunsford, Wm. Shaw, J. P. Rogers and Meneefee Elmore. Those we gain are Fred Shaw, Frank Gross, Walter Scott, of Estill, Geo. Colson and Mr. Marsee, of Garrard.

Evidences of gross criminal negligence in connection with the Chicago theatre disaster was brought out in the investigation by the fire department. It is believed that at least 35 per cent of the playhouses closed by the Chicago authorities will not be reopened, as conformity with safe-building laws would necessitate almost entire reconstruction.
